

STRIDE OUT

for 32 miles along the
Rhymney Riverside Walk.

The Rhymney Riverside Walk is a 32 mile linear walk which winds along the floor of the Rhymney Valley, following the river from its headwaters to the southern plains. There are many bus and train stops along the route – so it need not be walked in a single outing. The walk forms part of the Valleys Regional Park, a network of visitor facilities and accessible countryside activity routes across the Valleys.

For further information on walking routes and other activities which you can enjoy, please visit www.thevalleys.co.uk . The Valleys Regional Park is part-funded by the European Regional Development Fund through the Welsh Government.

Rhymney Riverside Walk.

The Rhymney Riverside Walk follows footpaths and cycleways, with some sections along the roadside in urban areas. The paths are mainly dry but can get wet and boggy in places after periods of wet weather – stout footwear is recommended. There are plenty of pubs and shops close to the route, but it's advisable to take food and drink. The use of sustainable public transport is encouraged – please check times of services beforehand. The directions in this document assume you are walking the route from north to south. Mobile phone coverage is generally good but reception can be poor in valley bottoms. Take your camera and binoculars and please follow the countryside code as you, 'leave nothing but footprints; take nothing but memories.'

Ordnance Survey Explorer maps 151 and 166 cover the route. NEW TREDEGAR

Bute Town – Model methodology.

In 1825 the Marquis of Bute began a new ironworks on the banks of the Rhymney River. To house his workers he created an early example of a planned village. But the success was short-lived, as the iron-workings were soon exhausted and the final row of planned houses was never completed.

Rhymney Brewery – A healthy pint.

The Rhymney Brewery was developed into Wales's largest brewery by Andrew Buchan, its first manager, who was in charge from its opening in 1838 to 1858. During the brewery's early years beer was drunk throughout the day – as it was safer to drink than water from wells or rivers, which could carry cholera.

Salmon – A spawning success.

Born in a river, living in the ocean, then returning home – the migration of the Salmon is amazing – the fish often returning to the exact spot where they were born to spawn. Redds is the name given to the gravelly area used by the Salmon to spawn, and some are found above New Tredegar.
